You'll take part in professional photo shoots for your own Portfolio, produced to a high industry standard.

EXPERT INSTRUCTORS

ENGLISH LANGUAGE

The International Makeup Programs feature the same high standard of instructors and curriculum as our other Makeup Programs.

All programs are taught in English. The delivery of the International Makeup programs emphasize practical hands-on learning.

For international students who wish to improve their written and verbal English, you will be encouraged to speak English only, in the classroom and on campus. Interacting with native English instructors, guest speakers, industry experts, models and photographers will strengthen your language skills and improve your confidence.

If you are concerned about your language skills, don't worry. This program is hands-on, meaning that the majority of class time is spent doing practical creative work. Assignments, lessons and exams are practical and visual. There are fewer written exercises and projects. You'll be learning by doing, applying makeup on models and other students in your class.

“Blanche Macdonald had great connections and classes for me to succeed in that industry...I loved my whole experience! The teachers are so experienced and nice, you can always ask questions and they’re there to help. And the classes are so small and personalized! I really feel that I was able to learn almost everything about the whole world of Makeup in the time I was there.”

SUCCESS STORY

SUNNY LEE | TAIWAN'S RESIDENT BRIDAL AND FASHION MAKEUP ARTIST

If you asked most brides in Taiwan who Sunny Lee is, chances are they would know her as the Makeup Artist from their own wedding. In the midst of a blisteringly fast-paced career in Bridal Makeup that spanned over 11 years and included “easily over 1000 brides,” Sunny Lee dropped everything in Taiwan and came to Vancouver to enrol in our 3-month International Makeup Studio program. The classes allowed Sunny to expand her already well-developed skills, propelling her to her current position as a top Bridal and Fashion Makeup Artist in Taiwan.

“I had read so much about Blanche Macdonald’s Makeup program and I knew it would be the perfect place for me to improve not only my bridal skills but to learn all the new things I wanted to learn. I knew Blanche Macdonald would help me be different and original and not just make copies of the other work I liked. My time at Blanche showed me how to be a real artist.”

- SUNNY LEE, Professional Fashion & Bridal Makeup Artist, Taiwan
